Dear Jeff and Laura,

Where do we begin? We have so much to thank you both for.

The renovation of my parent's new home was a huge undertaking for us and we didn't really know where to begin. We just wanted to say thank you for all the help and support you both gave us.

The guidance you provided and suggestions that you made were priceless. Your professionalism and workmanship shows throughout the house. There wasn't a detail that was overlooked. It's absolutely perfect and we rest easy knowing that they will be comfortable and happy in their new home.

We absolutely appreciate how you both went out of your way to help us make this project a victory. The comfort level that we achieved knowing that you were at the helm is more than we could have imagined; from all the handicap features that were installed right down to your picking out vanities and shelving to ensure that my parent's transition to this new home was as seamless as possible. So, once again thank you and your team of contractors who helped make this home an outstanding success.

When doing business with Jeffrey-Angelo Construction, it immediately becomes apparent that Jeff takes great pride in each and every project, no matter how small or large. He was at the home throughout the entire renovation, overseeing his contractors and making adjustments whenever needed. He was always just a phone-call away to answer any questions, or ease any concerns that we may have had.

I can wholeheartedly, without any doubt, recommend Jeffrey-Angelo Construction to anyone building or renovating a home who has the need for perfection. You won't be disappointed.

We thank you for your impeccable craftsmanship and your friendship.

Sincerely,

Michael and Lorraine Statile
